5.4.1 The Alumni Association/Chapters (registered and functional) contributes significantly to the development of the institution through financial and non financial means during the last five years.

Response:

This University has taken initiation to form an association in the name of "Thiruvalluvar University Alumni association". The Alumnus of this university exalted for the gesture shown by the University towards its old students for whom it has been a long cherished dream to step into their Alma mater. With gratitude and involvement, the members of the alumni have committed to render their moral, financial, academic and research support to the alma mater in order to shine better at all its spheres.

The alumni of this university decided to meet periodically ie, once in a calendar year in the campus to plan and facilitate their activities. The infrastructural development and academic excellence of this university on par with other developed universities. It is befitting that many of our alumni are well placed at various educational institutes, multinational companies, research labourites. Above all many a recently passed out students have got through the competitive examinations conducted by UGC, NET, SET & UPSC . A few are embellishing as successful entrepreneurs in our country and overseas. The successful entrepreneurs are inclined to come over to the campus with an intention to inculcate the success formulas in the minds of the students, who are in turn to become future entrepreneurs. Likewise scientist's erudite academician's creative writers of the alumni also periodically find time to meet with the students to infuse the spirit of acumen at multifarious levels. The University has extended the possible freedom and support to function as association with our members as office bearers.
