

Training and Orientation Programme

University Central Library Provided orientation programme for newly joined PG students and research scholar and how to use the university library resources particularly e-sources. It facilitated to know how to use the university library facilities, e-learning and e-journal access.

