

development and opportunity guidance, and with successful in Higher Education Institutions for practical insights.

- Study visits to institutions and Social Responsibility and Facilitating Community Engagement

FDP Programme Benefits

The program is aimed to train the participants in a more engaging learning paradigm that can be used by the faculty in their respective College / Institute / University. As it is widely accepted, experiential learning has a more significant impact on the learners, a major part of the proposed program will adopt experiential methods accompanied by emphasis on learner's reflection on the learning received. Few of the topics will also be covered through theoretical lectures.

The program will also help participants understand the concept of Social Responsibility and Facilitating Community Engagement in Higher Education Institutions and its different dimensions with more practical perspective so that they can apply the learning while training their students.

Target Audience

The Faculty Development Program aims to invite faculty from Higher Education Institutions in India who are keen to bring about innovative changes in their organization through their leadership skills promoting Institutional Social Responsibility and Community Engagement. Faculty members of different disciplines are eligible as it is an inter-disciplinary programme.

About the University

The Thiruvalluvar University was established in Vellore district of Tamilnadu by the Government of Tamil Nadu in October 2002 under the Thiruvalluvar University Act, 2002. The University was named after the great Tamil Saint poet "Thiruvalluvar". The University is located in a sprawling campus of about 112.68 acres at the Serkkadu near Vallimalai about sixteen km away from the Vellore City on the Ranipet-Chittoor Trunk Road.

In the University, every effort is harnessed to make Educational Institution as temple of learning. The aim of this University is to provide facilities for advancement in Research and dissemination of knowledge with a special focus on the economic and social upliftment of the marginalised who live in the four districts a viz Vellore, Thiruvannamalai, Ranipet and Tirupattur which are economically, socially, educationally and geographically backward districts wherein majority of the people live in rural areas with abject poverty. The University to provide for research and for the advancement and dissemination of knowledge with a focus on the economic and social upliftment. In the University, every effort is harnessed to make Educational Institution as temple of learning. The aim of this University is to provide facilities for advancement in Research and dissemination of Knowledge with focus on the Economic and Social upliftment of the society.

About the Department

The Department of Economics was one of the first departments to be established at Vellore during the time of the erstwhile Autonomous Post Graduate Centre of the University of Madras more than two decades ago, and it was annexed to Thiruvalluvar University in 1992 when the Autonomous Centre evolved into Thiruvalluvar University act 2002. The department has a sufficient number of Computers with wifi access for effective teaching and research. The department has two smart classrooms with computers and LCD projectors for current education. Every faculty member has a personal computer or laptop with internet access and the Research Scholars room has a sufficient number of computers with internet access. The Department offers M.A., M.Phil. and Ph.D. Programmes in Economics. Other than teaching assignments, the Department is also involved in academic and research activities such as conducting workshops and seminars.

Concept Note

The FDP is designed for 6 days with Social Responsibility and Facilitating Community Engagement in Higher Education Institutions. It would enable the faculty members with varied backgrounds to transact this course in the Arts and Science Colleges and Universities. The National Education Policy (NEP) - 2020 recommends that there should be a "substantial investment in a strong, vibrant public education system as well as the encouragement and facilitation of true philanthropic private and community participation". The vision given in the NEP for Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) is that of a multidisciplinary institution of higher learning that offers undergraduate and graduate programmes, with high quality teaching, research, and community engagement for attainment of a holistic and multidisciplinary education, flexible and innovative curricula and projects in the areas of community engagement and service, environmental and value-based education. Institutional leaders should aim to create a culture of excellence and develop Institutional Development Plans that will motivate and incentivize such outstanding activities.

Objectives of the FDP

1. To understand the historical perspective of local community engagement, work education, experiential learning and Nai Talim practice in India.
2. To study and understand the changing profile of local economy, polity and community in Rural India.
3. To study rural education and infrastructure needs and align them with the education programmes.
4. To understand the new village technology interface in terms of information, participatory processes, mainstream and alternative technologies in agriculture, rural livelihoods and industries and communication for promoting student-community participative learning.

Methodology

To impart the inputs detailed in the programme structure, the following instructional delivery methods will be adopted:

1. Lecture-cum-discussion, case studies, role-plays and simulation exercises.
2. Interaction with experts in Social Responsibility and Facilitating Community Engagement in Higher Education Institutions development, curriculum
